A BIMERAH MISSION.

This tall, slender, spindly "man" of the Bimerah mission and other people of Bimerah, was recently arrested in 1915 in the town on a Western station. Though there is nothing in the picture, beyond the improbability of it, to suggest that it is not genuine, the whole affair was "impossible."

APRIL 11 ON LAKESIDE

The steamer, which is apparently being on a special mission, is really making her way along the South Arm of the Richmond River, New South Wales, through the dense growth of mangroves that particularly impedes navigation in the area.
